Copyright Information Center

Our team is available over email or in-person to assist with:

- Identifying the rights status of a work you want to reuse
- Author Resources, including review and guidance for publication agreements (e.g. contracts) and the publication process
- One-on-one and workshop sessions to educate you, your group, department, or class about Copyright best practices
- Creative Commons and Open Access Resources
- Educating about Fair Use

If you seek privileged legal advice, contact the Cornell University Office of University Counsel

This work is licensed by Cornell University under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License.